GABRIEL W. GORENSTEIN, UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

The Court writes to clarify and correct portions of the Order issued November 17, 2020 (Docket # 649).

With regard to the statement in paragraph 1 that “Counsel should call Chambers to obtain the email address,” this sentence refers only to counsel for the SEC, which is hosting the platform. Other counsel should not call Chambers to obtain an email address. The SEC is responsible for providing login information/credentials to all parties and the Court.

Paragraph 2 currently states that “No later than November 30, 2020 at 5:00 p.m., the parties shall provide to the Court via email a list of all (a) attorneys participating in the hearing, along with their phone numbers and email addresses; (b) witnesses who will participate in the hearing.” This portion of paragraph 2 is corrected to read: “No later than November 30, 2020 at 5:00 p.m., the parties shall provide to the Court, via a letter filed on ECF, a list of all (a) attorneys participating in the hearing, along with their phone numbers and email addresses; (b) witnesses who will participate in the hearing.” The Court notes that each attorney is responsible for having an accurate email address and phone number for any witness called by that attorney.

SO ORDERED.
